#WUJ - ARAS Image Project

The Archive for Research in Archetypal Symbolism, ARAS, is pleased to collaborate with #WithUkrainianJungians in a joint effort to support our Ukrainian colleagues.

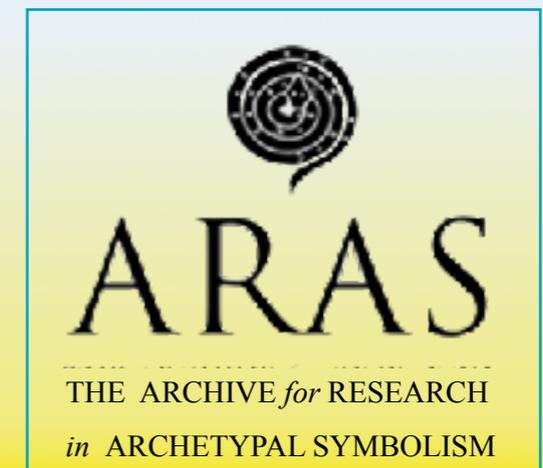

Presenters and participants in the 2023/4 #WUJ webinar series are invited to share images and pieces of music that arise in response to their experience of each webinar.

We are looking for newly created as well as existing images and music that come to mind. Pieces which manifest in a synchronistic way are also welcomed.

Submissions will be published at: aras.org/wuj

How will the #WUJ - ARAS Image project work?

You can submit an image or audio file:

- Visit aras.org/wuj
- Click on 'submissions'
- Fill out the form

Accepted file types are: .jpeg, .png, .tiff, .mp3 & .wav.
Images need to be at least 72ppi.

ARAS will collate and publish your image/audio file with its cultural context and archetypal association on their website: aras.org/wuj

ARAS is also creating an 'internet home' for the #WUJ series where images & all webinar recordings will be available to view. We hope this will attract a wider audience and stimulate financial contributions.

#WUJ-ARAS team

Allison Langerak Tuzo is the Director of the Archive for Research in Archetypal Symbolism (ARAS). She has worked at ARAS for the past 20 years in different capacities.

Stella von Boch, PhD, is an art historian with a special interest in Renaissance iconography. She is a candidate with the Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists (IGAP) in London. Stella was attached to the Warburg Institute for several years.

Oksana Korobova lives in Irpin, Ukraine and is a graduate of the Jung Institute, Kusnacht with an established private analytic practice. She enjoys playing the piano and has a special interest in the understanding & interpretation of acoustic symbols.

Marilyn Mathew is a Jungian analyst with BJAA in the UK. She has a profound interest in dreams, images and the imaginal world as well as the pre-imaginal and pre-verbal inter- & intra-psychic communication. She now analyses & supervises mainly online from south Devon.

Thomas Singer is a psychiatrist and Jungian psychoanalyst practicing in the San Francisco Bay Area. Over the past decades he has worked on a series of books about cultural complexes around the world and has also co-edited a series of conferences and books on Ancient Greece/Modern Psyche. Dr. Singer also serves as President of National ARAS, an archive of symbolic images.
